Allies Blast Away at Japanese Supply Lines Fifth Army Pincers Close in on Cassino

CAPITAL OF BULGARIA IS BOMB TARGET

Air, Land and Sea Activity
Flare All Over the Italian and Balkan
Fronts

SCHOONERS ARE SUNK

By WES GALLAGHER
Allied Headquarters, Algiers,
Jan. 11.—(P)—Fifth Army pincers closed in on the German Bas-sion of Cassino, 70 miles from Rome, today, with one arm reaching the outskirts of Cervaro, fortified village four miles to the southeast, headquarters announced.

Air, land and sea activity flared all over the Italian and Balkan fronts, as night bombers returned to Sofia to pound the Bulgarian capital in a swift followup to yesterday's daylight raid, and British destroyers sank three German schooners and damaged four others,
trying to run the blockade to Livorno, Ancona and San Ben-etto.

American troops advancing up the road to Rome threatened the German mountain defense of Mt.
Cocchio, less than three miles from Cassino, while British troops completed the capture of Mount Pedro, five miles southeast of Cassino, and continued to force ahead.

As the enticement of the Allied offensive stretched out to take Cervaro, American troops captured Mount Di Pippa, 1500 yards from the village and then pushed down
toward the heavily-defended town itself.

American infantry established a foothold on the mountain in the morning against stiff resistance and then launched an afternoon attack which met no opposition as the Germans had withdrawn.

Sweden Determine To Stay on Guard

Stockholm, Jan. 11.—(P)— King Gustav V, in a speech from the throne opening parliament, declared today that Sweden must remain armed and on guard while the belligerents are "rallying forces with the aim of gaining a decision in the great struggle."

The government backed up the king's declaration by proposing a budget for the financial year 1944-45 calling for the expenditure of $20,000,000 crowns (about $443-00,000) for defenses, or approximately half the total outlay of 3-74,000,000 crowns.

Sweden's relations abroad are good, the king declared, "and I trust in our chances of maintaining peace in the future."

ACUTE COAL SHORTAGE IN PHILADELPHIA AREA

Philadelphia, Jan. 11.—(P)—At acute coal shortage existed in Philadelphia today as more than 60 coal dealers disclosed they had without anthracite and have only small supplies of bituminous.

Dealers estimated there were 2,000 homes in the city without any coal, all awaiting fulfillment of orders. Some have been waiting for more than two weeks for ton of coal, all any dealer will deliver to a customer.

The Pennsylvania Retail Coal
Dealers' Association announced that as a last resort Fuel Administrator Harold L. Ickes was asked to raise Philadelphia's coal quota 15 per cent.

Warren Gunner Takes Part In Raid Over Bulgarian Capital

Allied Headquarters, Algiers,
Jan. 11.—(P)—RAF Wellington
bombers heavily bombed Sofia last night, following up yesterday's daylight blow against the Bulgarian capital by American Fortresses.

The whole capital was left burning and wrecked by explosions
from the two attacks, headquarters said.

Impeachment of Perkins Demanded

Washington, Jan. 11.—(P)— Rep. Thomas (R-N.J.) has asked the Democratic leadership to call for the resignation of Labor Secretary Perkins and demand her replacement with "a two-fisted, able person who understands both labor
and the American people."

"Some years ago," said Thomas,
in a speech to the house yesterday,
"I called for the impeachment of Frances Perkins. My charges of conspiracy were not supported."
"Today, however, I call upon the Democratic leadership in this house
to demand her resignation, for Frances Perkins and her long-haired advisers have brought the house of labor down to a point of degradation where it is endangering not only the welfare of labor itself but endangering our whole war effort."

Middle Reich Is Visited By U. S. Bombers

Four-Engined Warplanes
Are Reported in Strong
Attack During Day

RAF IN NIGHT FORAYS

New York, Jan. 11.—(P)—The Berlin radio said "strong units of U. S. four-engined bombers" attacked "places in middle Germany" at noon today. U. S. government monitors heard the broadcast.

London, Jan. 11.—(P)—Mosquito bombers, returning to the assault upon Germany after a one-night lull in the Allied aerial offensive, stabbed at Berlin last night and also bombed targets in the western Reich, the air ministry announced today.

The raid—the ninth night foray
by the speedy plywood Mosquitos
since the first of the year—was exhausted without loss, the announcement said. Save for Berlin
the targets were not specified.

British "bombs" also were busy over the continent last night on intruder patrols, the air ministry said, shooting down one German plane during these operations. One British plane "flew to return."

Only light aerial activity was reported over the continent yesterday, with formations of Typhoon
and Mosquito bombers cooperating in attack on the coastal area of northern France. Two Allied planes were lost and one German craft "was shot down."

The German-controlled Vichy
radio meanwhile declared that troops of the French channel coast departments had met yesterday in Paris to discuss possible evacuation of the e areas, which have

80-YEAR-OLD INVALID LOSES LIFE IN BLAZE

Cannonsburg, Jan. 11.—(P)— Mrs. Minnie Yates, 80-year old invalid, died late yesterday in a fire which destroyed a six room frame house at Hickory, 15 miles from here.

The widow's son, Eliezer Yates,
was in Cannonsburg on business
when two neighbors, Henry Walker and Blaine Pollock, noticed smoke curling from the home on the J. L. Henderson farm, about a mile north of the Burgettstown road.

The building was a mass of flames by the time the two arrived. The body had not been recovered this morning.

Four Fascists Are Reported Killed

London, Jan. 11.—(P)—Count
Galeazzo Ciano was shot to death
today, the German agency DNE announced, after his conviction on charges brought against him for voting to oust his father-in-law,
Benito Mussolini, as Italian dictator.

At the Italian Frontier, Jan. 11.
—(P)—An unconfirmed report said a Fascist firing squad at dawn today executed Count Ciano, former Italian foreign minister and son-in-law of Mussolini, and four other members of the Fascist
grand council sentenced to death
at Verona for high treason.

Eighteen members of the Fascist grand council were also sentenced to death.

DRIVES BRING WAR NEARER TO RUMANIA

Russian Spearheads Drive
Toward Vital Odessa-

GAINS IN THE DNIEPER

BULLETINS
London, Jan. 11.—(P)—Russian troops have opened a new attack from their bridgehead northeast of Kerch in the Crimea, and fighting continues, the Nazi high command announced today in a broadcast communique. There was no Russian confirmation of renewed battle in the Kerch area, where for weeks both sides have reported little activity. The Soviets first attacked across the Kerch Straits after cleaning up the Caucasus opposite the Crimea.

By HENRY CASSIDY
Moscow, Jan. 11.—(P)—Russian spearheads, steadily bringing war nearer to Rumania, drove toward the vital Odessa-Warsaw railway
today, and advance scouts felt out
the eastern bank of the southern Bug river after capturing a long stretch of land southeast of Ziminka, a junction on that main railway line.

To the rear, the second Ukraine
army of Gen. Ivan S. Konev fought within 15 miles of the Dnieper
north of town of Smela, after wiping out 8,000 Nazis encircled north of Kirovograd.

(The German high command declared the Soviets had launched a new attack from their bridgehead
north of Kerch in the Crimea,
with fighting still continuing.
There was no Soviet confirmation.
Berlin also said fighting raged all day yesterday for possession of Sarny, rail city 35 miles within old Poland.)

The first Ukraine army hourly
increased the threat of severing
the Odessa-Warsaw railway, a distance of three tank divisions, one infantry division and a motorized division—totaling perhaps 50,000 men. Only a few members of these units were said to have escaped the trap.

Gen. Nikolai Vatutin's First Ukraine army, meanwhile, battling forward on Konev's right, slashed two branch lines feeding the Odessa-Warsaw railway and captured Berzozne and Ludynel, 22
and 37 miles respectively southeast of Sarny (35 miles inside old Poland).

Pittsburgh, Jan. 10.—(P)—Ed-

delivering milk at $5 a week and later founded one of the largest dairy concerns in this district, died yesterday at his home. He was 79. Rieck began as delivery

Second Bill of Rights To Assure Economic Security

Washington, Jan. 11.—(P)—President Roosevelt laid what he termed "a second bill of rights" before congress today as a design to assure economic security and independence in the modern war.

"We have accepted, so to speak, a second bill of rights," he said, "under which a new basis of security and prosperity can be established for all—regardless of station, race or creed."

"Among these are:
"The right to a useful and remunerative job in the industries,
or shops or farms or mines of the nation;
"The right to earn enough to provide adequate food and clothing and recreation;
"The right of every farmer to raise and sell his products at a return which will give him and his family a decent living;
"The right of every business man, large and small, to trade in an atmosphere of freedom from unfair competition and domination by monopolies at home or abroad;
"The right of every family to a decent home;
"The right to adequate medical care and the opportunity to achieve and enjoy good health;
"The right to adequate protection from the economic fears of old age, sickness, accident and unemployment;
"The right to a good education."

Service Vote Question No. 1 Political Problem for G. O. P.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—(P)—The Republican national committee moved today toward endorsement of a policy of cooperation between the state and the federal government to facilitate absentee voting by members of the armed forces in the November presidential election.

The committee's struggle with what promises to become 1944's
No. 1 political problem overshadowed the purpose of its meeting here—
to fix the time and date for the party's national convention.

The procedure of today's meeting, the first at which members gathered to exercise their official functions, had become so cut and dried that there appeared no doubt that Chicago's meager bid of $75-000 for the convention would be accepted and the convening time set for June 25 or thereabouts. The committee also will allocate state
quotas of convention delegates.

Consequently the service vote question occupied the principal attention of the party's organization
members who hope to elect a president—any good Republican—in November, but are worried about Democratic charges that they don't want soldiers, sailors, Marines,
WACS and others to vote.

Democrats in congress, notably Senator Guffey (D-Pa.), have impugned the motives of the Republicans on this score and the GOP national committee felt called upon to name a subcommittee headed by Russell Sprague of New York to draft a resolution putting

Stay Granted For Murderer In Erie

Harrisburg, Jan. 11.—(P)—The governor's office today said it would delay the execution of William McCausland, convicted of murder in an Erie taproom shooting until a further appeal can be made before the February session
of the State Pardons Board.

Wendell R. Good asked the delay in a letter to Governor Martin explaining the supreme court declined an appeal of McCausland and asserting the prisoner should be heard by the pardons board.

The governor's office said the supreme court had not certified its decision to the chief executive an added no date had been set for execution. McCausland was sentenced to death in the shooting of Leo P. Knoll.

FIGHTING IN NORTH GUINEA IS INCREASING

United States Naval Units
Deal Blow to Enemy Efforts to Repel Americans at Sidor

SHELL INSTALLATIONS

By MORRIS LANDSBERG
Associated Press War Editor
Ships and planes of the United Nations blasted away at the hardhit Japanese supply line in a coordinated attempt to short-circuit
the enemy's ability to strike back at Allied invasion of his island
bases in the southwest Pacific.

United States naval units, joining in the battle for northern New Guinea, dealt a blow to enemy efforts to repel American forces that landed at Sidor Jan. 2. They hurled their shells into Japanese shore installations at Gali Point, 20 miles south of Sidor, while P-T boats destroyed seven barges loaded with troops and supplies.

Allied planes not only found the barge-hunting good, but swept Nipponese positions in the Solomons, New Britain and the Marshalls as well as New Guinea. The Japanese retaliated with ineffective
air raids on American beachheads
on New Britain and at Sidor.

Heavy and medium bombers dropped a total of 168 tons of explosives on supply and airbase installations around Madang, big Japanese base 55 miles north of Sidor, bringing to nearly 1000 tons the bomb weight aimed at that sector in the last 10 days.

No ground action was reported in the Sidor area, but Australia-nals driving north to join the U.
S. Sixth Army units there again encountered stiff opposition from Japanese troops pushed to within 65 miles of the American beachhead.

Big four-engined Liberators stabbed at the lower reaches of the Japanese-held Netherlands
East Indies with a 25-ton bombing of the enemy's base at Kendari
on the east coast of Celebes
and 750 miles northwest of Darwin, Australia.

President Suggests Five-Point Program In Annual Address

Realistic Tax Levy, Continuation of Law Permitting
Recognition of War Contracts, Cost of Food
Regulation and Stabilization Plan

MILLIONS "NOT IN WAR AT ALL" EXECUTIVE SAYS

Washington, Jan. 11.—(AP)—A five point legislative program, headed by enactment of a National Service Law, was recommended to congress today by President Roosevelt.

He proposed a National Service Act for the duration to "prevent strikes" and, with some exceptions, to "make available for war production or for any other essential services every able-bodied adult in this nation."

These were his other four points:
1. "A realistic tax law."
2. Continuation of the law permitting renegotiation of war contracts.

3. "A cost of food law."
4. Re-enactment of the economic stabilization act which expires next June 30.

In his annual message to congress, which he was prevented by the gripe from delivering in person, Mr. Roosevelt dwelt largely on domestic problems, but he spoke also of the war and its progress.

His legislative program was proposed "in order to concentrate all our energies and resources on winning the war and to maintain a fair and stable economy at home."

His five measures, the chief executive said, "form a just and equitable whole."

The president said he was convinced that a National Service
Law was necessary.

Supporting his arguments for a National Service Act, he said millions of Americans "are not in this war at all" and that the act would be a means by which every man and woman could make the fullest possible contribution to victory.

Mr. Roosevelt described "a realistic tax law," the first point in his legislative list, as one which would tax all unreasonable profits, both individual and corporate, and reduce the ultimate cost of the war.

The revenue bill now in congress, which would yield only about a fifth of what the administration had sought, does not start to meet this test, he said.

Backing up his request for continuation of contract renegotiation, the chief executive asserted
it would prevent "exorbitant profits and assure fair prices to the government." He recalled that he had pleaded with congress for two years to take undue profits out of war.

On his third point, a cost of food law, he said it should enable the government to put a reasonable floor under farm prices and a ceiling on the prices that consumers pay. It should apply only to necessities, he declared, and public funds will be required to effectuate it. He figured the cost would be about one per cent of the present annual cost of the war.

Unless the stabilization statute is renewed, he said, the country can expect "price chaos by summer." Stabilization cannot be accomplished by wishful thinking, he said, and positive action must be taken to maintain the integrity of the dollar.

The president touched with relative brevity, at the outset,
his message, on the war conferences which took place overseas in the final weeks of 1943. He hailed them as intended to prevent mistakes made at the conclusion of the last war.

Mr. Roosevelt warned against over-confidence and complacency, asserting the way to fight and win the war is "all out" and not with half an eye on personal, social, or political interests at home.

He said he hoped congress
would recognize that while 1944

How Secret 'Rocket' Plane Works

The photo and diagram shown here are of an Italian Caproni-Campini jet-propelled plane that presumably operates on the same principle as the new, secret jet-propelled, propellerless plane whose perfection by U. S. and British engineers has just been announced. This Italian plane flew 168 miles in 2 1/2 hours on Dec. 1, 1941. The first successful flight of the British plane was made in May, 1941. The "rocket" or jet-propulsion method is basically simple. Air is drawn into the fuselage through large intake vent under the nose and compressed in a rotary blower. Fuel is added in the combustion chamber and the gases then pass through a turbine and are ejected at high velocity through a tail nozzle. The rearward force of this jet of gas thrusts the plane forward.

Eddy Urges Extension of Radio To Cover Whole of County

Attorney LeRoy C. Eddy, addressing Social Science Club at its January meeting, presented an interesting picture of "Some Phases of the Administration of the Criminal Law in Warren County." Out of his wealth of experience as former district attorney of Warren county, Mr. Eddy was able to give many matters that are practically unknown to ordinary citizens, and not familiar to many attorneys at law, except theoretically.

In his opinion "...in the various phases of the administration of criminal law, as applied to our state and county, by the modern facilities for the investigation of crime and for the apprehension of the prisoner; and the various new laws or amendments to other laws by quite recent statutes, in the criminal law and procedure, the power to cope with and meet crime, and to track down, apprehend and catch the criminal and to bring him to justice in Warren county, is an excellent state.

Mr. Eddy described the network of police reporting teletype machines, located in the barracks of the State Police here, which with an eight-state hookup, greatly facilitates apprehension of criminals. High praise was given Lt. Raymond Eckert and his associates of the Warren Police Department for establishment and development of the fingerprint department of the local police, and attributed to this development coupled with photographing, the fact that where formerly an average of 3 lodgers or transients were entertained nightly at the local police station, after finger-printing and photographing were installed the figure dropped to 360 the first year and since then the number would not exceed 50 a year—a beneficial effect hardly anticipated.

Mr. Eddy stressed the importance of the Warren Police Department's "Link Radio" system, which includes radio police car inter-communication with the police headquarters and other cars. All officers using these facilities must pass examinations and be licensed by the Federal Communications Commission. Mr. Eddy urged the extension of these facilities which was being considered, which by slight power changes, and increased elevation for the transmission and receiving mast would extend the present 25-mile radius of the local frequency system to cover the four corners of Warren county. This would make it possible for the county sheriff's automobiles, and those of the local detail of the Pennsylvania State Police likewise, if properly equipped with radios, to work with greater efficiency and put all three law enforcement agencies in a position to cooperate more closely and at low cost.

Discussing the important matter of criminal laws and procedure, Mr. Eddy showed that most of these statutes were passed in 1860, and it was not until 1939 that any new codification was passed, dealing with the laws but leaving procedure quite unchanged. Laws relating to parole and powers of trial judges as recent as 1941 were clearly described. The Pennsylvania Board of Parole, created in 1941 by the legislature, and its powers were described. Also the legislation of 1943 restoring to the courts the right to control defendants sentenced for less than a maximum of 2 years.

ALTERATIONS STARTED

Alterations are under way in the building recently purchased by the R. W. Norris Company. An opening will be cut through the walls into the store rooms now occupied by the company and an archway formed. The building will be used by the Norris Company as they need additional space for the expansion of their business which is growing nicely.

MAKING ALTERATIONS

Workmen are now engaged in the installation of fixtures, etc., in the storeroom in the Columbia theater building formerly occupied by the Cook Boot Shop. The place has been given a thorough renovation and some handsome new installations made and in about three weeks the Harriet Byrd Shop will open an infants and children's department featuring modern children's wear.

GETS COMMISSION

Dora L. Doolittle, who has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army Nurse Corps, has been ordered to report to Fort George G. Meade, Md., for her basic instruction. Lt. Doolittle, who came to Warren from the south, was employed for a time in the child welfare section of Warren General Hospital and after her marriage, was employed in the Mitchell building at Warren State Hospital. Her husband, Robert Doolittle, is with the armed forces overseas.

TO HAVE OPERATION

Arch Erickson at the Warren General Hospital suffering from a fractured hip will undergo an operation to have a pin placed in the fractured bone. This is expected to help recovery and will enable Mr. Bristow to be removed to his home sooner than ordinarily in a case of his kind. He was injured last Friday night at Garland when after putting his automobile in the garage he slipped on the ice and fell heavily. He was removed to the hospital at once.

Ninety-Three Men Bag But One Little Fox

The Warren Field & Stream Club fox hunt which was held yesterday in the area near the old creamery on the Jackson Run Road gave the group of 93 men more excitement than all the other hunts put together.

The large number of men made it possible to throw a tight ring of men around the area and when the fox was driven out someone was bound to get shooting.

Two foxes were driven out on the first drive and one of these was killed by Cris Burdick of the Warren Club. The other fox was badly wounded but was not killed. Some of the club members trailed it for several miles and reported that it had bedded down four times but was still a better traveler than they. The two foxes provided shooting for 12 men and 22 shots were fired.

On the second drive only one fox was driven out and it too was badly wounded—after having 15 shots fired at it. Dogs were secured to put on this trail and it is almost a certainty that the dogs caught this fox in Irvine Run. The men who followed the dogs reported that they could hear the dogs making the kill but that by the time they got into the valley the dogs had left the area in search of the Sportsman and would of lead them to the kill. This is not unusual action on the part of the dogs since they quickly lose interest after making a kill. Darkness prevented the dog owner from thoroughly working the area of dense hemlock to find the fox.

All sportsmen are reminded of the Warren Field & Stream Club meeting to be held at the YMCA Thursday, Jan. 13, at which time Mr. Harris Breth will speak. Mr. Breth is one of the best known outdoor editors.

The steel industry consumed more than 35,000,000 tons of scrap in its blast and steelmaking furnaces during 1940.

Ruined Church in War's Wake

Cultural casualty of the fighting in Italy is the 1100-year-old St. Thomas Cathedral, shown here with its roof destroyed and its dome shattered shell. The famous church is reported to have been blown up by German units retreating during the bitter fighting with the Canadians in Ortona.

MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE

Word was received Saturday that Pfc. Elmer W. Hagstrom is at present stationed somewhere in England. He had his basic training in Florida and was previously located at Kearns, Utah, as a truck driver. He also had special training at Fort Logan, Colo. He attended Warren public schools and before entering service on August 29, 1942, was employed as a drill press operator at Struthers-Wells.

Private John Teconchuk, of the U. S. Air Force located in Ala., is spending a 15 day furlough the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Teconchuk, at Pittsfield.

Ensign John William Lutz, of the Navy Supply Corps Reserve, who resides at 11 Central Avenue, Warren, Pennsylvania, is one of 437 young officers who graduated on December 29, 1943, from the Navy Supply Corps School at Harvard University. As result of his successful completion of the rigid four months' course, Ensign Lutz is no longer a "Probationary" officer. He has received his "General Service" commission, and will be assigned to duty at an important shore activity.

2nd Lt. Stanley G. Sasserson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Sasserson, 115 Park street, arrived home Saturday evening from Seymour, Ind. for a ten-day leave. Lt. Sasserson began his air training at Nashville, Tenn., where he was classified as a pilot. He was then sent to Maxwell Field, Ala., attended primary school at Clarksdale, Miss., and received basic training at Courtland, Ala. From here he was sent to Freeman Field at Seymour, where he received twin-engine advanced training and was awarded his silver wings at graduation exercises held Friday, December 7. Lt. Sasserson expects to go to Salt Lake City, where he will receive further training.

Pfc. Martin T. Sampson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sampson, 11 Monroe street, this city, has graduated from the Air Corps Mechanics School at Seymour Johnson Field, N. C. Pfc. Sampson is now stationed at Chanute Field and is enrolled in a Power Plant specialists course.

Lt. Alice C. Nelson, ANC, located at the 32nd Evacuation Hospital in Arizona, is home on 10-day leave with relatives and friends in Sheffield.

Aviation Cadet Herman James Streich, of Maxwell Field, Ala., is home to spend a furlough with his mother, Mrs. Florence Streich, Pennsylvania avenue, east, and other relatives.

Joseph Montore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Montore, of Clarendon, reports that he has arrived safely somewhere in Australia. He was inducted June 4, 1943, had his basic training at Camp Wheeler, Ga., and was later transferred to Fort Ord, Calif.

Lt. Velma E. Nason, located at the Camp Crowder, Mo., station hospital, is on furlough at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Nason, 110 Pioneer street.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bower, of Youngsville, have received word that their son, William, has arrived safely in England.

Mrs. George Wells, formerly of 20 Morrison street, has received word that Pfc. Norman O'Connor has been transferred from Camp Edwards, Mass., to the Orlando, Fla., air base. His brothers, Edwin O'Connor, has been promoted to engineer's mate third class and has been assigned to a ship. His fleet post office address may be had from Mrs. Wells, 314 Third street, Titusville.

Chief Petty Officer Frederick Donovan has returned to his duties after having spent the past month visiting his family here. He reports to San Francisco, Calif. for further assignment.

Forecaster Sgt. Horace Keeley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kelly of Russell, is now located at air base in Smyrna, Tenn.

Charles Elliott Dunn, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Dunn, 9 Dahl street, has been enrolled for a month's refresher course at the pre-radio naval training school located at the U. S. Naval Armory in Michigan City, Ind.

Pvt. Donald R. Currie has returned to Newton D. Baker General Hospital at Martinsburg, W. Va., after a five-day furlough with

HOLD THAT PIPELINE!

Don't let Jack Frost get through your water pipeline. He'll score heavily against you.

Freezing weather causes unprotected water pipes to burst. Repairs may be delayed due to material and manpower shortages and you would be without running water for several days. Repairs will be expensive, too.

During these extremely cold nights, your "line of defense" against Jack Frost is:

ALLOW A SMALL TRICKLE OF WATER—ABOUT A QUART A MINUTE—TO RUN ALL NIGHT FROM A FAUCET LOCATED HIGHEST IN YOUR HOUSE.

• Make sure exposed water pipes and meter are wrapped with old newspapers, rags or burlap.

• See that your basement is air tight. Repair broken window panes. Stuff cracks in walls, around windows and around doors which admit cold air.

Bristow Pays Tribute to Judge Wade

Arch Bristow in a recent column in the Erie Dispatch-Herald wrote the following relative to Judge Allison Wade, of this county which is a fine tribute to the young man who is winning much praise for his work on the bench:

"Judge Allison Wade, of Warren, is one of the country's real authorities on juvenile delinquency. And, strangely enough, he says there is no such thing. Without mincing matters at all, Judge Allison Wade will tell you we have plenty of delinquent parents, very few actually delinquent children. The judge has made, is still making a deep study of so-called juvenile delinquency. He has the whole subject of the culprit youth at heart. He attends gatherings of the judiciary, which discuss this pressing problem. He has spoken several times on the subject."

"Judge Allison Wade of Warren is doing a wonderful work in his sympathetic, understanding investigation of youthful delinquency. Boy after boy has been brought in 'for a good talk.' The judge puts the lad at his ease, talks with him like a father; i. e., as a father should, but too rarely does. If there is bravado, the judge gently breaks it down. Very often the boy is in tears. Perhaps just there the boy is put on the right path."

"We hope that Judge Allison Wade will continue to speak on delinquent youth. We hope every community in the region will invite him to speak to audiences of parents. And we respectfully suggest, as the judge's topic on these occasions, the title of that dear old hymn, 'Where Is My Boy To-night?'"

Brothers Met In England On Christmas Eve

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Swanson, of Pleasant township, have just had news of an exciting Christmas Eve happening between their sons, Sgt. Frederick J. in England for some time, and Pfc. Marshall E., who has only recently arrived overseas.

The sergeant, with another soldier, had been given the assignment of transporting a truck to another point and were forced by heavy fog to stop en route to find overnight accommodations. They were taken in and granted permission to stay.

During the evening, Sgt. Swanson asked concerning the outfit and learned it was that of his younger brother. The younger soldier was summoned and the two had the pleasure of a happy Christmas Eve reunion far from home.

HELD IN JAIL

Robert L. Etheridge, of Pittsburgh, and Joe Wade Hester, Hazlehurst, Miss., are being held in the county jail and will be assigned today on a charge of forgery. The men were arrested in the Savoy Restaurant recently when the Savoy employees notified police the men had attempted to cash a check there. Investigation of the case by the police developed that the men had forged the name of a local firm on a check for $50. The pair had a number of checks in their possession when arrested. Police are still at work on the case and may develop other angles.

FREEDOM DAY

Governor Edward Martin has urged that Pennsylvanians observe in some marked manner the 75th anniversary of the congressional approval of the 13th amendment to the U. S. Constitution. This amendment passed on February 1st, freed the slaves in United States and the anniversary has been called Freedom Day.

High School Carnival Plans Are Rapidly Taking Shape

One of the High School Student Council program highlights each season is the midwinter indoor carnival and plans are well under way for this year's event. The date has been set for March 17 and Jim Farrell has assumed general charge of arrangements, with these sub-chairmen handling specific details:

Auditorium show, Ed Peterson and Gloria Hausman; gym show, Jay White; dance, Juliana Hannold; refreshments, Peggy Blair; musical show, Nick Geractmos; ushers, Connie Hall; tickets, Gilbert Johnson; bakers, Dudley King; side-shows, Jack Conney; games, Jack Weiler; midway, Larry Feidler and Duane Wilder; clean-up squad, David Spies; publicity, John Borne; vending, Leland Daye; checking, Algot Eckstrom.

Council members have accomplished a great deal during the first semester of the current school term and plans under way for several events indicate a busier than usual winter and spring season.

Greatest achievement of the group is the increase in the sale of war stamps and bonds. This was done principally through the erection of a large "V" under the direction of Kihlar McDonald, with an electric light representing each home room in the second. If a home room has 100 percent sales, its light on the "V" goes on; otherwise it remains dark throughout the week. When the high school has 100 percent and the entire "V" is lighted, it is placed outside for the public to view.

A suggestion was made by Principal Floyd Bathurst that a news letter be mailed to alumni in service, the plan was taken up by council and such a letter printed and mailed to 300 young men and women. Many replies have been received from the list expressing appreciation for school news and particularly the work being done in stamp and bond sales.

The holiday dance held December 27 in Beatty school gym was a great success, indicating that the young people of Warren could like more activities of this kind. Council voted to use profits from the party as postage for its news letter.

A vote to revive the Dragonette met with general approval. Don Norris being the temporary editor and the first issue to appear soon. Copies will be sold to students and a few copies mailed to alumni in service. Anyone wishing his boy or girl in service to receive the publication is asked to send the name and address to the student council.

FELLOW TRAVELERS AND REDS

(Written for NEA Service and the Times-Mirror by S. Burton Heath)

Some who have read our expressed opinion of Communists and fellow travelers in this country profess to wonder why we try to differentiate. So far as they are concerned, when we brand anybody as a "fellow traveler" we are just avoiding trouble that might result from calling him forthrightly a Communist.

This is not the case. It is not libelous to call a man a Communist. The Communist party is recognized legally, is permitted to put up candidates, and in the rare cases when such candidates win, they are permitted to hold office exactly as though they were Republicans, Democrats, Laborites, Socialists. It can not libel a man to link him with a legal political party.

We differentiate in fairness, because we do not believe that the Communist party is entitled to the standing that it enjoys.

The U. S. Civil Service Commission, trying to defend an indefensible order protecting fellow travelers, makes the clear point that "a member of the Communist Party . . . has clearly indicated that he is willing to take orders from a political group located in a foreign nation, and whose first loyalty is to a foreign government."

The commission's unwillingness to accept such persons as government employees "does not reflect any lack of genuine enthusiasm for the tremendous contribution which the Soviet government and the Soviet people have made to the winning of this war. Such a policy is simply a frank recognition of the fact that man cannot serve two masters."

A Communist is first of all the willing agent of a government other than the American. But a fellow traveler or a party-line follower is not, necessarily, a Russian-firster.

The fellow traveler may be one who sympathizes with the Stalinist ideology as he conceives it to be. He may be an easily influenced person who is deceived by untrustworthy friends into doing things detrimental to American interests, without realizing that those things are sponsored and dictated by a foreign government.

It is only when a person deliberately steps over the line, accepts servile membership in the Communist party, pays dues, carries a card, that he demonstrably chooses Moscow in preference to Washington.

So, to the best of our ability, we seek to distinguish him from the fellow traveler who, we are charitable enough to believe, if the choice had to be made would stand by his own country.

WE STILL NEED SHIPS

The reason behind the shift away from merchant shipbuilding has been told officially, but it has not been stressed enough. Any idea that the shipping bottleneck has been eliminated, that we have all the cargo craft we need, is wrong and very dangerous. We can not afford to relax for a single moment.

Emphasis has been changed not because we have sufficient ships, but because we do not have enough landing craft, and for the moment the latter are even more important than freighters.

According to sources entitled to credence, the Navy may ask the War Shipping Board for as many as from four to five hundred additional ships this year, for operations in the Pacific. These must be taken out of the pool available for bringing in raw materials for the war program and for servicing civilian needs.

Right at this very moment, we may have enough vessels for current needs, by retaining rigid restrictions on foreign trade. But President Chiang of China was not in Cairo as a sightseer. He was there to talk about an all-out attack against Japan. This means that the time has come when the machinery must be set up to begin such an offensive. And that, in turn, forewarns of a draft on shipping such as this world never has seen.

Ships can be built only with steel. We can not tolerate a steel strike. Steelmaking and shipbuilding make big demands on transportation. We can not tolerate a railroad strike.

It is important who is at fault in the disputes that have grown up in the steel and railroad fields. But that is infinitely less important than that the trains shall roll and the steel come out of the furnaces so that ships can be built—the landing barges which will take our soldiers and marines to Jap-guarded beaches in the Pacific, and also the transports and cargo ships that will carry and service our fighting men.

Be It Ever So Blasted—

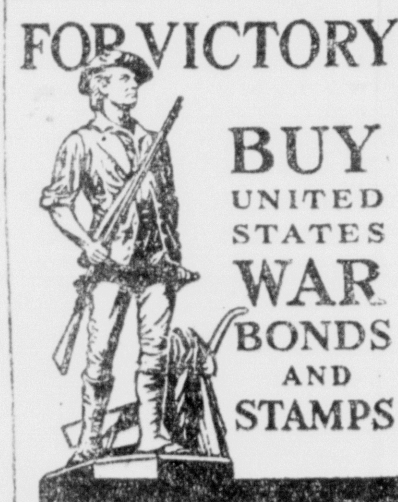

County Being Organized for Huge Home-Front Offensive To Start a Week From Today

January 18, Uncle Sam will launch a gigantic home-front offensive with its goal $14,000,000—the quota for the 4th War Loan.

Just a week from today, volunteer workers all over the nation will start a house-to-house solicitation that will give every man and woman in the land his or her opportunity to invest in extra United States War Bonds.

Warren County's share of the huge national total is $3,504,000—no small sum in itself. To reach this goal, the County has been organized with a thoroughness unsurpassed in any of the previous drives. In outlining the organization set-up, County Chairman Merle Deardorff said, "Every Warren County citizen will be given the chance to lend his dollars to the fight in this drive, every village and hamlet in the County—every farm, no matter how remote—every business from the smallest shop to the biggest corporation—all will be reached personally by a volunteer War Bond Drive worker. The slogan of the 4th War Loan is, 'Let All Back The Attack', and it has been our aim in organizing the County to see to it that all persons are at least given the opportunity to back the attack with their dollars before the drive closes February 15."

Strong emphasis was placed on the work "extra" in connection with the War Bonds you will be asked to buy during the 4th War Loan. "In previous drives the people have been asked to invest their funds in War Bonds. In this drive they are asked to invest in

TWENTY-FOUR hours later, Raoul called Lee at his apartment. "I am speaking from a booth in Grand Central Station," he said. "The Count sent me here to purchase tickets and sleeping accommodations for a party of five to Detroit on the eleven-thirty train tonight. I don't know what his business is, but he received a letter from Detroit today, written in his own language. It excited him."

"Can guess what his business is," said Lee, "and I will take pleasure in spiking it. Thanks for calling."

Lee summoned Welby to the apartment and told him what had happened. "Evidently Tashla has already tired of the assembly-line," he said. "He has written to Count Deduchin asking for another assignment. I want to have Tashla or William Brown, as he is known at present, warned. Get hold of a Latvian. Let him fly out to Detroit and he can beat the train by several hours. Let him look up Tashla before he leaves home in the morning. Your man makes out to be a conspirator of Tashla's own variety. He tells Tashla what happened when Goshovell went to Count Deduchin's house. Let him make out to be the Navy Yard draughtsman. He sold Goshovell the blueprints. Goshovell took them to Deduchin, etc., etc. He escaped from the house by an accident. Before giving himself up to the police, he came to the draughtsman's home and asked him to go to Detroit and warn Tashla to keep out of Count Deduchin's way; that Deduchin has apparently lost his mind, etc."

"Okay," said Welby. "But how would Goshovell have learned of Tashla's alias and his address in Detroit?"

"That will have to go by default," said Lee. "Your Latvian can simply say he doesn't know. It doesn't matter particularly since we are warning Tashla, not setting a trap for him. God help him if he disregards our warning."

COUNT Deduchin, accompanied by his secretary, flew back to New York on the following afternoon. Raoul Duplessis found an opportunity to advise Lee over the telephone of their arrival.

"I still can't tell you what took him out there, Mr. Mappin. All I know is the journey was all for nothing. He has come back in a rage."

Hard on the heels of this message, Lee received a summons to come to Count Deduchin's house immediately.

The little Count was alone. His ugly little face was distorted with rage.

"What have you got to report?" he demanded as soon as the door closed.

"No good news, sir," said Lee sulkily.

"In God's name, what am I paying you for? Day after day you bring me the same story! The Count went on, waving his hands. "No news! Is that how you earned your reputation. To me it's a sham!"

When he had a chance, Lee said in gentle protest: "I would be more successful if I enjoyed your confidence, sir. How can I produce results when I am kept in the dark?"

"What do you mean?" "When Goshovell came to see you I was told nothing. And today," Lee continued dryly, "you made a trip to Detroit without telling me. I suppose you were on the track of Tashla."

The Count whirled around. "How do you know I went to Detroit?"

"One of my men happened to be on the same plane."

"How did you know Tashla was in Detroit? And why didn't you tell me?"

"I was only waiting until I had made sure. There are so many William Browns! One of my agents traced Tashla from Cleveland to Detroit. When he proceeded to seven U. S. Government securities. These include:

U. S. WAR SAVINGS BONDS, SERIES E. This is the "People's Bond" of which over three million pieces have been sold in the first three campaigns. From the standpoint of interest return, it is the most attractive of all the issues offered by the government, and is the ideal investment for wage earner and small business and professional man.

U. S. SAVINGS BONDS, SERIES F AND G. These two issues are designed for larger investors and may be bought by all classes of purchasers.

SERIES C SAVINGS NOTES. These are designed primarily for the temporary investment of funds to meet Federal Income tax payments or for other short-term investment needs, and may be purchased in unlimited amounts by any individual, bank or corporation.

TREASURY CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS. This issue will be dated February 1, 1944, mature on February 1, 1945, and yield 7/8%.

FIFTEEN YEAR 2 1/2 PERCENT TREASURY BONDS. This is a new security and replaces the ten year 2% Treasury Bonds offered in previous war loan drives. A special feature provides that they may be redeemed at par and accrued interest for the purpose of meeting Federal estate taxes.

TWENTY-SIX YEAR 2 1/2 PERCENT TREASURY BONDS. These bonds are dated February 1, 1944, mature March 15, 1970, and are callable March 15, 1965. These bonds are ideally suited for purchase by large investors, corporate and individual, as well as by trust funds and estates.

One woman is missing IS IT YOU?

ALL OVER THE COUNTRY—in all 48 states—women are joining the WAC.

They're stenographers and housewives. They're artists and teachers, mechanics, and accountants.

They're learning new skills and improving old ones—becoming expert radio operators, laboratory technicians, record clerks.

They're seeing new places, making new friends, sharing an experience they'll never forget.

And every day, every hour, there is the deep satisfaction of helping to win this war in as direct a way as any woman can.

Why are YOU missing this opportunity?

Right now—the WAC needs women between 20 and 50 years of age, without children under 14. (Women in essential war industry must have release from the U. S. Employment Service.)

Find out today about all the WAC offers you—the vital jobs Wacs do, their valuable training, interesting life, their opportunities for important service. Go to your nearest U. S. Army Recruiting Station or mail the coupon below.

Much Business At Meeting Of Trinity Parish

Members of Trinity Memorial parish met last evening at the parish house for annual reports of the rector, parish treasurer and parish organizations. Eleven vestrymen, parish treasurer and secretary were elected.

Vestrymen elected were: J. H. Alexander, Robert Trusler, H. H. McConnell, Walter Beatty, E. M. Branch, H. B. Meacham, Wm. Greaves, Sylvanus Davis, Guy C. Edris, Chester Allen and Rex Biekarek. E. M. Branch and Guy C. Edris were re-elected treasurer and parish secretary respectively.

The Rev. Beecher Rutledge appointed William Rice as chairman of the forward in service committee.

Following reports of all parish officers, the rector gave his annual report. The meeting was then turned over to church members for general discussion, and several suggestions were made for improvements.

One important phase of the meeting was discussion of the youth of the church, and necessity for finding a place for their recreation. L. N. Donaldson gave a fine report on the Boy Scout

Ladies' Night Much Enjoyed By Foremen

Members of the Foremen's Club and their ladies, numbering 90, gathered in the YMCA last evening for the organization's annual "Ladies' Night" party. President Ray J. Ledebur was in charge of an entertaining program which followed dinner served by the First Lutheran Dorcas Club.

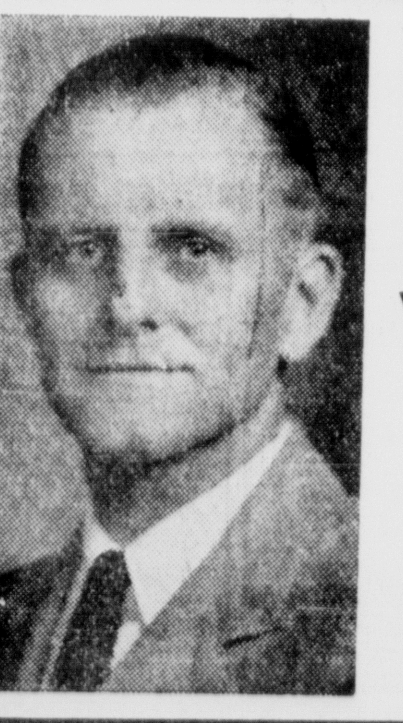

One of the features of the evening was the presentation by the Rev. Sherman Epler, of Dunkirk, N. Y., who devoted the early part of his program to the performance of magic and concluded with an inspiring message on the theme "Sharing What One Has" and illustrating with a number of sleight of hand tricks.

Also much enjoyed was special musical numbers by a mixed quartet provided by the Sylvania Electric Products, Inc., the singers being members of the company's glee club in Emporium.

President Ledebur expressed to the ladies the members' appreciation for their cooperation extended throughout the club's season.

Mary Blocher Is Program Chairman For Philomel Club

Miss Mary Blocher will be in charge of a miscellaneous program for tomorrow's meeting of Philomel Club, to be held at the Woman's Club at 2:30 o'clock, followed by a tea for which the following will be hostesses: Mrs. Sydney Blackman, Mrs. Harold Flowers, Mrs. W. E. Boreman, Mrs. H. B. Meacham and Mrs. Jesse Swain Girling.

Miss Blocher has arranged for the following numbers: Symphonic in C Major by Mozart, Mrs. Allie Russell, Mrs. Peter Horning, Mrs. John Ekey, Mrs. Flowers; songs—Clouds by Ernest Charles and Down in the Forest by Landon Ronald, Mrs. Anna Wilson, accompanied by Mrs. Harriet Wilkins; Elegy by Rachmaninoff, Mrs. Wilkins; Jardine sous la Pluie by Debussy and Menuet from Ravel's Sonatine, Mrs. Fern Bjers; songs—Go Lovely Rose by Roger Quilter and the Unforeseen by Cyril Scott—Mrs. Harry Dravas, accompanied by Mrs. Eugene Kuester; An Old Castle and Children Quarreling at Play from Mousorgsky's Pictures in an exhibition; Lotus Land by Cyril Scott, Miss Blocher.

New Year's Eve Rites Performed In Camp Chapel

A military wedding performed at the altar of the Fort Ord, Calif., camp chapel on New Year's Eve is of interest locally, since it united in marriage Jeanette Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Scott, of North Warren, and Pfc. Franklin Farrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Farrell, 313 Frank street, this city.

Chaplain Weathers performed the ceremony at 7 p. m. in the presence of a few friends. The chapel organist played "O Promise Me," "I Love You Truly" and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride was attractively attired in a street length frock of Roosevelt blue, with matching accessories, and gardenias formed her corsage. Her only attendant was Edna Smoot, of California, attired in a suit of light blue bagardine, with matching accessories and red rose corsage. Sgt. Nicholas Sebastian, of Philadelphia, was Pfc. Farrell's best man.

A reception followed at the USO, where a bride's table was attractively set with tall candles and a beautifully decorated wedding cake. Replacing the traditional bridal couple decoration on the cake was a silver horse shoe.

The couple are at home at 320 Salinas street, Salinas, Calif.

DAR Membership To Have Program On School Work

General Joseph Warren Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold its annual "approved schools" meeting at the YWCA activities building at 2:30 p. m. Thursday.

Topic of the guest speaker, Mrs. D. E. Conaway, will be "The Mountain People As I Knew Them". For many years one of the most important projects of the DAR has been the establishment and maintenance of schools for mountain children and this chapter is indeed fortunate to hear Mrs. Conaway, who has done real work among these little-known people.

Hostesses for tea to follow the program will be Mrs. Gilbert Buekle, Miss Inez Brownell, Mrs. J. H. Linneman, Mrs. J. C. Logan, Mrs. H. L. Norris, Mrs. Ray Pickett and Miss Minnie Shawkey.

Installation For Spinster Officers

Installation of the following new officers highlighted Monday night's meeting of the Spinster Class of First Presbyterian church: Miss Martha Swick, president; Mrs. William Schwartz, vice president; Mrs. E. E. Koebley, secretary; Mrs. Florence Hill, assistant secretary; Miss Nell Milenius, treasurer; Mrs. Homer Swick, teacher.

Reports for the past year were given by the secretary and treasurer, the latter showing receipts of $367 and gift to the White Christmas fund of $317. Another report was that the past year's project of caring for flowers at the church each Sunday.

It was voted to sponsor Girl Scout Troop 30 which meets in First Presbyterian church and Mrs. Koebley was appointed class representative to the troop committee.

Members worked during the evening sewing and in conclusion, refreshments were served by the newly elected officers.

Social chairman for the February meeting will be Mrs. C. P. DeLong.

Stone Class Has Annual Election

Twenty-one members of the May R. Stone Class met Monday evening in the Presbyterian church parlor. The meeting was opened by Miss Hazel Thurston, president of the class. Mrs. Marian Keiser read a selection from "The Great Man" and then the members joined her in repeating the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. W. H. Cannon, Jr., read the report of the nominating committee and the following officers were elected to serve this year: Miss Hazel Thurston, president; Mrs. Gilbert Johnson, vice-president; Mrs. Russell Norris, secretary; Miss Esther Stoll, treasurer.

Following reading of routine reports, the business meeting was adjourned and Mrs. H. A. Thurn and her committee served refreshments.

HAD JOB HERE

Jerry Quirk, of Erie, who had the contract for demolishing the old City Building for the New Process Company has secured the contract for razing the walls of the burned Park Hotel at Franklin. The walls will be torn down to the third story and it is thought that they can be utilized in erecting a new hotel. Plans for reconstruction are being discussed.

NO INTRUDERS FOUND

Police during last night discovered the door unlocked into the office of Dr. Victor McAlpine, Third avenue and the light in his office turned on. Knowing that burglaries of dental offices in this section had been recently reported the officers investigated. A check showed nothing disturbed and a telephone call to Dr. McAlpine elicited the information that he had been in his office during the evening and that he had undoubtedly left the light burning and door unlocked.

NEEDS SKILLED MEN

Navy personnel in charge of recruiting manpower for the "ship repair unit" has issued an appeal for men skilled as blacksmiths, anglesmiths, boilermakers, watchmakers, optical instrument repairmen, coppermiths, radio technicians, Diesel mechanics and sailmakers. High School Football Gets 3 Changes

Chicago, Jan. 11.—(P)—The nation's high school football code underwent three surgical operations during the annual meeting of the National Interscholastic Football Committee.

The rules changes, announced today by Secretary H. V. Porter, provide: (1) when a free kick does not cross the receiver's restraining line and is not touched by a receiver the kick will be made again after enforcement of a five yard penalty. According to the old rule there was no penalty.

(2) Acts of encroachment on the neutral zone were classified as follows: Between the time the zone is established and the time of the snap no player shall be in the zone in such a way as to touch an opponent, delay the snap, or cause an opponent to change.

(3) In a handed pass behind the line of scrimmage the handing of the ball forward to eligible player anywhere behind the line is not to be considered a forward pass. Under the old rule if the ball was handed forward to an eligible end it was necessary for him to be at least one yard behind the line of scrimmage. The new rule does not apply to passes which travel through the air, Porter said.

McSpaden Wins Richest Golf Tourney With a Scorching 66

By FRANK FRAWLEY

Los Angeles, Jan. 11.—(P)—America's richest golf prize, the $12,500 Los Angeles open championship, is the latest conquest of Harold (Jug) McSpaden of Philadelphia.

After winning four of his last six tournaments, the Quaker City club member triumphed in another yesterday at the Wilshire country club with a 72-hole total of 278.

He finished with a rush in the final 18 holes to post a scorching 66, five under par, and beat the best previous 72-hole score for the open over this course—a 285 in 1933 by Craig Wood, the New Yorker who holds the National

Open championship for the duration. Jug won his newest laurels and in all departments of the game. $4,375 in war bonds by consistency. His four rounds were 69-72-71-66 for the par 71 course.

Johnny Bulla of Atlanta (CQ), who won the Los Angeles open in 1941, finished second this time with 281 to pocket $2,125. His last round was a par performance previously posted score.

Leonard Dodson of La Jolla, Calif. Wood and Toledo's Byron made in the face of McSpaden's Nelson tied with 282's for next place and a prize of $1,125 each. The veteran Willie Hunter of Santa Monica, Calif., was a stroke behind to collect $825. Tied for next place with 285's and winning $387 each were Olin Dutra of Los Angeles and Jimmy Hines of New York. Marvin Stahl, Los Angeles, and George Fazio, Pine Valley, N. J., tied at 286 to win $237.50 each.

Sammy Byrd, the former New York Yankee outfielder who set the pace for the first two rounds, cracked up badly and his final round of 75 left him tied at 287 with Ellisworth Vines, ex-tennis champion. Their purse was $187.50 each.

Philadelphia, Jan. 11.—(P)—If the National Football League wants to know what Bert Bell, co-owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers, thinks of expanding the circuit to take in Sunny California, all it has to do is ask Mr. Bell. He is ready to talk, but plenty, as they say in sporting circles.

"It's not good judgment in my mind to even consider an expansion and it won't be good until the war is over," says Bell, who still isn't straightened out after his last safari in an upper berth.

Dean Nelson, with a total of 29 points, led the Forge quintet last evening on the YMCA floor, to a 65-45 victory over their arch rivals, Struthers-Wells. It was a good game to watch even though the score would indicate otherwise. Plenty of action plus nice teamwork on the part of both teams was noticed. The Forge employed a zone defense that had the boys from the other side of the tracks puzzled. In fact they didn't seem to fathom it until the last quarter and then it was too late. Billy Bjers had a hot night and swished the sphere through the curtains for 14 points to lead the Struthers boys in scoring.

In the second fray the Baker's Cleaners came through to win from their rivals, the Blomquists, 49-38. This game was a rough and tumble affair with the Baker aggregation leading all the way. At the half the score read Bakers 24-Blomquist 18. In the second half Bakers again led the scoring, getting 25 to the North Warren Boys 20. Carrying the brunt of the attack for the Baker boys was Dimples Peterson with 19 points. Jack Flick was high man for Blomquists, picking up here and there the total of 10 points.

Warren Cagers Hit Road For Rocket Game
The Warren Dragons, in a conquering mood, travel to Titusville tonight to face the Rocket cagers in what promises to match, if not surpass, last Friday's game, when Warren downed the Franklin team after a thrilling battle, 44 to 40, for the District 10 lifter.

Titusville has won five games this season, and only dropped one and are rated as rivals with the Dragons for top slot in the District race, with other members behind the locals only in number of games played.

Oil City, Meadville, Franklin and Titusville all offer the best of competition this season against the Blue and White, the first named a victor over the Erie East outfit, and all three of the others ancient foes on the hardwood to the Warren team, and all will face Warren here in the next month.

But tonight, the focus falls on the Dragon-Rocket tilt, a game that may eventually decide the champion.

INFANT RIQUER
Charles J. infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Riquer, died in Erie on Monday and will be buried in Oakland cemetery here on Wednesday following services held at one o'clock at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Riquer, 16 Eddy street. Rev. J. C. Wygant, pastor of the First "Angelic" church, will officiate at the rites. Also surviving are grandparent, Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Wely, Et. Zelo, N. Y.

MRS. EDNA INSCHO
Bradford, Jan. 11—Mrs. Edna Inscho, aged 73, a resident of Bradford almost her entire life, died last night at 10:30 o'clock at her home, 25 South Kendall avenue, after an illness of the past six years. Her condition had been critical for the past two weeks. She was born in Venango county, Pa., October 1, 1870, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eberhart and moved to Bradford with them when she was a child. She had resided here since. Mrs. Inscho was well known and was a member of the Asbury Methodist church and of the Poochontas lodge.

Surviving here are her husband, C. B. Inscho; one sister, Mrs. Winifred Russell of Warren; one brother, Manny Eberhart, Glenrock, Wyo.; a step-son, Orin Inscho, Elmira, N. Y., and an aunt, Mrs. Cora Chase of Pleasantville, Pa.

Personal Paragraphs

Mrs. W. O. Jones has been called to Ripley, N. Y., by the illness of her husband's mother.

Miss Nellie Knapp of Youngsville was strayed away from General Hospital for a fractured lower left arm, injured when she fell on the ice on Friday.

Miss Theresa Barton, Irvine, street, was brought to the emergency department of Warren General Hospital for x-ray of an elbow fractured in a fall while she was en route home from her employment at the Thomas Flexible Coupling Plant.

Workers Strive Hard to Keep Up Production

Compilation of the various features entering into the labor situation in this area is now under way at the War Manpower Commission in accord with the preparation of reports. There are some interesting things disclosed in the reports. One of them is that the flu epidemic which has swept Warren and vicinity did not have the effect that was expected. The effort that was made by the employees of the various plants to remain at work and keep production in full swing was excellent. While illnesses are charged up as absenteeism the rate was kept lower than expected.

Another feature disclosed has been the low labor turnover in the various plants. This reflects the work of the War Stabilization Board. The fact that jobs cannot be changed at will is reflected in the fact that one plant, employing several hundreds of men and women, did not have one "quit" in two months. The number that have changed jobs is infinitely small.

Return of men and women to Warren plants from out-of-town places of employment is also shown. There has been a large trek back to Warren. The fact that out-of-town plants have a somewhat higher pay rate and that the really big checks are due to many hours overtime has been realized. Then the extra cost of board and room and the absence of features of life that keep long-someness away has also had an effect. The final conclusion is that smaller pay in Warren is more attractive.

Second Year's Work for Blood Bank Committee to Be Launched Next Week

Members of the committee appreciate that regulations, laid down by the Red Cross, permit donors to give every two months if necessary but they urge communities to have a large list of volunteers so it will not be necessary to call persons more than four times each year.

As one person on the committee expressed it, "Many of us have worked on Community Chest and Church campaigns and know the thrill when one picks up a $100 or larger subscription. Yet we know that it is the volume of $5 and $10 subscriptions that make the success of any campaign. We get the same thrill when we hear volunteers offer to donate every two months and we appreciate their interest and patriotism. But all donors are not in a position to do this and to give the 4,830 pints of blood that is our quota for 1944 we need a great number of individual donors, coming regularly, once or twice a year."

To enable those who must cancel their appointments this coming Monday and Tuesday the Blood Bank committee asks that any who will not be able to be present let the committee know no later than Saturday, or even Sunday. If those who find they will be unable to be present will call either 2926 or 1619 by Sunday noon, arrangements to secure a substitute can be made. No substitutes can be called in at the last minute and no one can take your place if you fail to appear. For this reason the committee appeals to all donors to be prompt and if unable to be present, to allow the committee 24 hours time in which to arrange for a substitute donor.

Must Battle Into Tokyo Halsey Says

Japanese fleet could now be considered to be badly crippled, he replied: "I would say rather than badly, seriously."

But, he continued, the enemy still can muster a fleet large enough to put up a serious battle. He noted that the major Japanese naval base at Truk in the South Pacific, is very strongly defended by air, fortifications and mines and that the Japanese undoubtedly have good repair facilities there.

Asked if he considered it necessary to capture Truk, he replied that the only definite place which must be taken is Tokyo.

Concerning Japanese hints about a major offensive in the Pacific in 1944, the admiral said: "There is no bigger bar in history than the Japanese. If you read their propaganda you can read anything."

With respect to enemy air strength he observed that their planes are "about the same, in fact a little better," but that there is a very definite deterioration in Japanese pilots.

The Jap soldiers' disposition to surrender, he said, is increasing.

The soldier voting action came as a sequel to a promise by Rep. Charles A. Talleck of Indiana, new chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee, that the party would retain the military high command intact if it wins the presidential race.

Details were still lacking on the latest battle between the Japanese and American marines seeking to clear them from Cape Gloucester, New Britain. A headquarters spokesman announced casualty figures which indicated 500 leatherned had been killed or wounded in the Gloucester operation against 2000 unmet enemy dead. The marines landed there Dec. 24.

Harrisburg, Jan. 11—(P)—Leading news executives will discuss ways to increase service to the public despite restrictions on use of paper when the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association holds a two-day convention here Friday and Saturday, January 28 and 29.

Effect of the manpower shortage on newspapers also will be considered when leading editors and publishers speak on a host of war and post-war problems.

The convention program, under direction of Col. J. H. Zerby, Jr., of the Pottsville Republican, will include a session dedicated to women in the war, business meetings, a dinner session, and two separate gatherings for weekly newspaper members.

Bell Not Keen For Football On W. Coast

"Los Angeles may be a very good city," he said magnanimously, "but say you'd go there and play on a Sunday and had a game in Philadelphia the following Sunday. Know what would happen? You'd lose in Philadelphia."

"The players would be bruised up and on a train for three days where they couldn't work out the stiffness and get those whirlpool baths. You'd get in Philadelphia Wednesday night and you'd have only three days to limber up."

That's supposing you could get a squad aboard a trans-continental train. "Why, do you know that to get transportation for our game in Chicago I had to start working on it six days in advance?" demands Bert Bell. "And then I couldn't get return tickets. I had to ask the Bears to work on 'em for me in Chicago."

"No," said Mr. Bell, who isn't sure he and his partner Art Rooney will renew last season's merger with the Philadelphia Eagles. "This is no time to be talking about another city in the league. What we have to do is try to get players for the cities that are in the league."

"And between you and me I think it's going to be a lot tougher to Welcome these Soldiers of Victory!

THE "shock troops" of your Government's 4th War Loan Drive—a drive that must raise $14 billion to put the punch behind the punch that may make 1944 the date of doom for the Nazis—will soon call on you to buy your personal quota of Bonds. For, of the $14 billion that must be raised in this Drive, $5.5 billion worth must come from individuals.

Welcome these American men and women—5 million of them—who are not only buying their share of Bonds but are giving their time to call on you, personally.

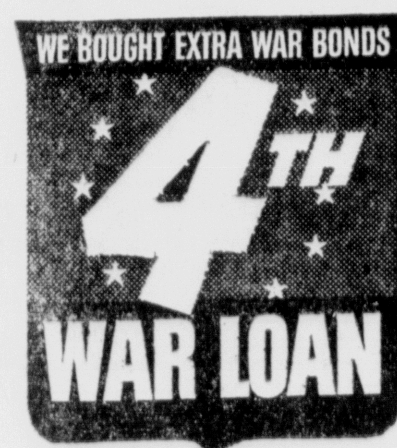

Every office, every plant, every home, every individual in America has a quota to meet. Your personal quota is at least one extra $100 Bond. That's above your regular Bond buying.

If possible, buy your extra Bonds during this drive at the plant or office where you work. A volunteer Bond worker will sell you there. Otherwise, welcome him to your home when he calls. Or find one in the thousands of retail stores all over the United States. They want to find you—you must help see that they do.

If you are unable to make your purchases from a soldier of victory be sure to go to one of these other special War Bond stations to buy your extra Bonds:
